After-reading

After reading groups. Make a list of questions for the representatives of the 2nd group to get the necessary information. Mix together and ask the questions in order to get the information you need.

Did Louis Mayer work hard? Was his life easy or difficult? What was Louis Mayer’s contribution to the world’s culture?

Watching

Pre-watching

One more celebrity got the title of Honorary citizen of Minsk last year. Do you have any ideas?

What do you know about Darya Domracheva?

While watching try to focus your attention on the information about her sports career

1) Checking the comprehension

Look at ex.3 in your pupils’ sheets (Appendix 1). Match the words of each sentence and number the sentences.

2) Discussion

What have you learnt about Darya Domracheva? Where did she live? Was it difficult for her to win the Olympic Games? Did she practise a lot? Can we say that she is a real pride of our country?

3) Feedback

Watching

While watching

- answer the teacher’s questions
- watch a video interview with a famous Belarusian sportsman https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LUFp4X826A

After watching

- discuss the recipe of her success

(Appendix 1, ex.2)
Express your point of view: Was it easy to become famous for Darya Domracheva?

Summing up

Speech practice

1) Work with speech supports
Find ex.4 in your pupils` sheets (Appendix 1), feel in the gaps as you think is the best.
At the beginning of our lesson we had some difficult questions, let`s go back to them.
Do you know how to answer them? Don`t you think that we have to work very hard and very much to become famous? Do you agree that these people create the image of our country? Would you like to be famous? What do we need to become famous and ordinary?

2) Home task and the results of the lesson
At home you`ll work with blog (http://zubrilina.blogspot.com/). You have to comment on the quotation of one more Honorary citizen of Minsk. Our lesson is over. Thank you for your work.

- fill in the gaps in the table
- tell about the reasons for making the personalities discussed at the lesson honorary citizens of Minsk
- answer the teacher`s questions
- comment on classmates` answers with the help of evaluation rubric
- evaluate their own and partners` work at the lesson
- put down their homework

Performance assessment

Text A. Louis B. Mayer

Louis B. Mayer was a film mogul (важная персона) and the most influential person in Hollywood from the mid-1920s to the late-1940s. Film producer and executive Louis Burt Mayer was born to an Eastern European Jewish family in Minsk in 1884. 1) ____________________________ brothers. At the age of 12, Mayer quit school to help his father run the family scrap metal business. When he was 19, he moved to Boston, expanding the father-son scrap (лом) enterprise into the United States. Soon after he arrived, Mayer met and married 2) ____________________________ daughters.
Once a friend of his took Mayer to the theater in Massachusetts. The budding (многообещающий) businessman soon got a taste for success and began to acquire more and more old theaters in the area, rebuilding their reputations and facades in equal measure. After taking over all five of Haverhill's theaters, he partnered with Nathan Gordon to gain control of a large theater chain in New England. In 1914 Mayer bought exclusive rights to the landmark picture The Birth of a Nation with the money he earned pawning (заложив) his wife's wedding ring. He also started 3) __________________________ in New York. In 1918 Mayer moved to Los Angeles to form Louis B. Mayer Pictures Corporation.

By then the producer had gained a reputation for his hunger and ability to spot talent. The list of Mayer's greatest discoveries included Greta Garbo, Joan Crawford, Katherine Hepburn, Clark Gable and Fred Astaire.

Under Mayer's influence, MGM productions were characterized by elaborate sets, gorgeous costuming and pretty girls. Such pictures as Ben-Hur, Grand Hotel and The Good Earth gained MGM the reputation for entertaining films of consistently high quality.
